Habakkuk- Week 4

Recap

Habakkuk was living by God’s truth revealed. Look back at 2:4, 14, 20. How are these truths valuable? What promises do they give and how do they affect the life of a believer?

Habakkuk 3

Prayer, vision, and faith took Habakkuk from the valley to the mountain top. According to 3:2, why did Habakkuk pray? What did he ask for?

Habakkuk saw his people experience Discipline. Babylon found wrath. What is the difference between the discipline and wrath? Why is this important to distinguish? Use the following passages to help build an understanding between discipline and wrath. Ephesians 2:1-7; Hebrews 12:6; Revelation 3:18-20; John 3:36; Romans 1:18-20.

How would you define or describe God’s glory? How does Habakkuk portray God’s glory in 3:3–15? What makes Habakkuk 3:13 important to the context of this story of God’s Glory?

How does God reveal His glory today? (John 1:14; 2 Corinthians 4:15; Hebrews 2:9; 1 Peter 5:10; 2 Peter 3:18) How do you best experience God’s glory? (Talk about your personal walk with God). How should God’s Glory cause us to respond? How can we encourage our hearts to respond to His glory?
