Hebrews 12:18-29

Read Hebrews 12:25-27. What is promised in this passage?

Hebrews 12:27 states that that what can be shaken needs to be removed so that only what cannot be shaken can remain. Read Romans 8:18-22 and identify the benefits of creation being made new.

What response does Hebrews 12:28-29 request?

Share what comes to mind when you think of the wrath and judgment of God?

Discuss what has shaken you in your life or what you are concerned will shake you.

God is just in acting out judgment, and he is loving in providing a way to fulfill His judgment. What is your response to God's nature of being just and loving?
